Re: Paragraph 1 of Protocol no. 125

Appendix 1

To U.S. President Lydon B. Johnson

Washington,
The White House

I was deeply saddened by the news of the tragic death of the eminent statesman, the President of the United States of America, John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

John F. Kennedy's death is a serious blow to all people who cherish the cause of peace and Soviet-American cooperation.

The heinous assassination of the U.S. president at a time when, through the efforts of peace-loving peoples, there were visible signs of reduced international tension and new prospects for improved relations between the USSR and the U.S., evokes the indignation of the Soviet people towards the perpetrators of this vile crime.

My personal meetings with President Kennedy have left me with a memory of him as a broad-minded statesman who took a realistic view of the situation and who strove to find ways to resolve through negotiations the international problems that presently divide the world.

The Soviet government and the Soviet people share the grief of the American people over this great loss and express the hope that the search to resolve issues in dispute--to which President Kennedy contributed a great deal--will be continued in the interest of peace and for the good of all humanity.

Please accept, Mr. President, my personal condolences.

N. Khrushchev
Chairman of the Council of Ministers of the USSR
